DIRECTORATE OF AGRICULTURE UTTARAKHAND
NANDA KI CHOWKI, PREM NAGAR, DEHRADUN

1. Background:

Agriculture plays a vital role in the State economy; approx 70 per cent of the rural population in Uttarakhand depends on agriculture for sustenance and as their principal means of livelihood. In order to materialize this vision into reality, efforts are on to make agriculture sustainable by way of adopting organic practices. Organic agriculture requires different approaches and continued support especially when, it is being converted from chemicals/ fertilizers based system of farming. Government of Uttarakhand is implementing Paramparagat Krishi Vikas Yojna and schemes of similar nature for organic farming supported by Participatory Guarantee Scheme, Internal Control system (ICS) as certification system for remunerative incomes to farmers of different categories.

This assignment intends to support this scheme through the expertise of agencies to be engaged in organic farming, cluster development, mobilizing beneficiaries, training trainers, training of Lead Resource Persons deputed under Paramparagat Krishi Vikas Yojna, support to farmers/ their groups in marketing of their produces to a remunerative price and extending help in finding markets/ market linkages for the Organic Producers.

2. Objective:

The purpose of this initiative is to engage Institutions/ Cooperatives/ Trusts/ NGOs/ FPOs registered with NCOF and its regional offices for successful implementation of PKVY Scheme by extending their expert help collectivize organic farmers, mobilizing farmers for organic cultivation, their group formation registration etc., imparting them with organic crop production trainings in close association with the agriculture department, building their capacities, helping in preparation of different types of reports, online registration of farmers, organic cluster formation, training and capacity building for farmers, technology introduction, support to farmers in induction of technological adoption, creating different types of reports for getting organic certification from different agencies like PGS India.
